Overview
Type	Surveys on living conditions
Identification	NSD0309-2
Version	Production Date: 2012-10-23 Notes Data from Statistics Norway are documented and prepared, third NSD edition.
Series	Before Statistics Norway went on to conduct coordinated surveys in 1996, it was from 1967 to 1995 completed surveys on living conditions at regular intervals. The matter was about the topics health, housing and living conditions. Living conditions survey was conducted in 1967, 1973, 1981, 1988 and 1995. It was conducted as a collaboration between The Ministry of Local Government and Regional Development, Statistics Norway and The Norwegian Building Research Institute.
Abstract This data set is taken from the "Survey of Housing Conditions, 1995" conducted by Statistics Norway (SSB) on behalf of The Ministry of Local Government and Regional Development. SSB carried out their own living conditions surveys in 1967, 1973, 1981, 1988 and 1995. Since 1997 the collection of housing data is integrated in the new arrangements for the collection of living data. The purpose of this study was to provide a broad description of living conditions in Norway, and to identify changes in living conditions over time. The survey includes the following topics: household size, housing finance (as the cost of rent, light, heat, maintenance, and interest and principal on the mortgage), the property standards, own and lease conditions, disposal of second homes and holiday homes, moving plans and contact with neighbors. The data set is divided into two files. One file is at the household level, and contains most of the variables. The other is at the individual level per dwelling, and includes variables for individuals in different households. This file contains data on an individual level.

Sampling
Sampling Procedure It's drawn a total of five committees for the study. In addition to a representative national sample is drawn selection for Oslo, Trondheim and Bergen. To obtain a sufficient number of respondents in each city level, there was drawn an additional selection in the three cities. It were extracted about 6500 persons from different households. Net sample consists of 4,453 households, totaling 11,914 people. Data were collected through a combination of visits and telephone interviews.
Weighting The sample was drawn in such a way that all analysis must be made on the basis of weighted data. The first selection is a person committee, while the data is primarily used for analysis at the household level. Difference in number of household members will have causes the various draw probabilities that must be weighed. In addition, there was a relatively high dropout rate, and the selection should therefore be weighted with respect to biases.
